

After successful completion of M Pharm Pharmacy Practice program, students will be able to:

PO No	Competency
P0 1	Demonstrate the ability to apply the acquired knowledge to provide preliminary solutions in specific areas such as clinical pharmacy practice and pharmaceutical care in all the practice settings.
P0 2	Identify problems related to day to day professional needs of the healthcare system in the service domains such as clinical, hospital, community pharmacy and pharmaceutical industry.
P0 3	Design and develop solutions for the problems faced in healthcare system using advances in clinical research, drug development, pharmacometrics, pharmacoepidemiology, pharmacoeconomics and outcome research.
P0 4	Present their own findings based on observing, understanding, documenting compiling, analyzing, organizing data and information; eventually converting such information with judgement in areas of pharmacy practice research, specialty practice, pharmacometrics, pharmacoeconomics, clinical trials, pharmacoepidemiology, antibiotic stewardship and other emerging areas.
P0 5	Demonstrate standards of capabilities in information technology and digital domains, by applying relevant analytical software tools in drug information, statistical analysis, data analytics, pharmacokinetic and pharmacodynamic modeling and in bioinformatics domain.
P0 6	Demonstrate capabilities for professional and ethical delivery of services to organizations, businesses and society at large.
P0 7	Cultivate a sense of commitment to minimize the hazards in using the drugs in clinics and adhere to the norms of environmental protection and sustainability.
P0 8	Cultivate a sense of fair play, sensitivity to professional ethical codes of conduct, social values that includes gender-neutral attitudes and practices; respect for all races, religions, cultures, traditions, languages and nations and respect for democratic institutional values.
P0 9	Demonstrate a capacity to work as an individual by demonstrating professionalism and integrity and at the same time engage colleagues from diverse professions.
P0 10	Demonstrate effective communication skills with professional decorum employing conventional or digital media.
P0 11	Demonstrate the abilities to manage projects with an effective leadership and managerial skills and cultivate the effectiveness for a successful financial management.
P0 12	Cultivate a temperament that would enable individuals to set and work towards self-driven performance-goals, entrepreneurial ventures and overall leadership, with an ability to be a lifelong learner and a vision to stay ahead of times.

